

SCORES (and other stuff)

• THE NUMBER OF SHOOTERS AND THEIR SCORES.

For those of you who are interested only (primarily???) in things like the number of shooters we had, and what were their scores:

- (a) nineteen (19) scorecards were turned in;
- (b) based upon those scorecards, we definitely had 7 shooters; and
- (c) their scores are set forth below.

• SOME SPECIAL NOTES ... (which really shouldn't be needed in a report on scores):

- (a) Although I am reporting that we “definitely had 7 shooters,” it is possible (but unlikely) that we actually had 8, or maybe even 9, shooters. I note this possibility because two (2) of the scorecards that were turned in did not have some very pertinent information written on them, such as the names of the shooters, the “Class” and “Division” they were shooting in, etc. Admittedly, those scorecards did have the scores (like a 184-4x) written on them, and the initials of the persons who scored the shooters’ targets. I do have some suspicions regarding who those unknown shooters might be, but I’m going to refer to them in the scores set forth below as “Mystery Shooter #1” and “Mystery Shooter #2.”
- (b) I also have a special note for 11-year old (perhaps he became 12-years old since last Fall when we first met him) Aristidis Heronvis ... and that “special note” being ... as we start out on our 2023 “shooting season,” you should now be somewhat comforted (and amused!!!) to know that even “adults” somehow often “forget” to write vital information on their scorecards. As I told you (i.e., Aristidas) last Fall when you attended one of our “Benchrest” matches for your first time ever, this “phenomenon” of failing to put information on scorecards has happened in the past (too frequently) and, most assuredly, it will happen again in the future.

• SCORES.

After reviewing what WAS written on the scorecards, and then correcting mistakes in arithmetic, and then making some “educated guesses” about some things which should have been written on some scorecards, here is what I was able to decipher as being the scores shot at the March 18, 2023 100-Yard .22 Rimfire and Cast Bullet Rifles “Benchrest” match.

CAST BULLET “CLASS”

IRON SIGHTS

Stonkey, Bob	181-2x	(Shooting a .30-30)
Stonkey, Bob	176-1x	(Shooting a .308)
Wancheck, Perry	158-0x	(Shooting an 03A3 .30-06)
Wancheck, Perry	145-3x	(Shooting an 03A3 .30-06)

.22 RIMFIRE “CLASS”

TARGET - SCOPED DIVISION

Monahan, Tom	193-2x
--------------	--------

Nemeth, AJ	191-2x
Monahan, Tom	189-7x
Monahan, Tom	189-6x
Nemeth, AJ	189-4x
Stonkey, Bob	187-4x
Nemeth, AJ	183-6x
Walton, Bob	176-2x

SPORTER - SCOPED OPEN DIVISION

Escovitz, Jim	187-7x
Heronvis, Aristidis	186-1x	(Youth Division)
Heronvis, Aristidis	183-1x	(Youth Division)
Heronvis, Aristidis	170-4x	(Youth Division)

SPORTER - SCOPED LIMITED DIVISION

Escovitz, Jim	173-2x
---------------	--------

THE “MYSTERY SHOOTERS”

Mystery Shooter #1	184-4x
Mystery Shooter #2	160-0x

• OTHER STUFF WHICH MAY BE OF INTEREST TO SOME OF YOU.

- (a) There are new targets boards which, I was told, were put up by Jim W. Martin and Perry Wancheck and that “range work” is much appreciated by us [and maybe even by other shooters at the Club who use the “Rifle Range.”] You guys don’t need to do that “range work” by yourselves. As in the past, there are many of us who can help.
- (b) It’s too early in our 2023 “shooting season” for me to come up with some “stories” about this March 2023 “Benchrest” match, other than to say that it was really cold and windy. There was some sunshine which, at this time of the year, was so low on the horizon such that the sunlight would blast you directly in your eyes, and also directly into the lenses on your rifle’s optics and your spotting scope, to such an extent that it would cause glare and “chromatic aberration,” etc. when looking through the lenses downrange toward the targets. Although all of those conditions created some demanding shooting circumstances for us, and certainly affected our scores for that day, none of those conditions seemed to bother any of the turkeys that decided to meander casually across the line-of-fire while we were shooting!!!
- (c) The “200-20x Cash Prize Contest” didn’t have any problem surviving this day and there is now $323.00 in the “pot”!!!

Thanks to all of you who turned out to shoot our March 18th “100-Yard Benchrest” match. Our next “100-Yard Benchrest” match is scheduled to be held on Sunday, May 7th, 2023. We will be sending out an e-mail “reminder” about a week before that match.

Please feel free to contact either of us “Match Dictators” at any time if you have any questions, suggestions or other comments.

Jim Escovitz
jim.escovitz69@gmail.com
 (412) 389-7086 (cell phone)

Rich Mysliwczyk
Rich.Mysliwczyk@flir.com
 (412) 527-1448 (cell phone)